

Hebrews 11:23-29

A stained glass window depicting a woman, likely the Virgin Mary, wearing a crown and holding a child. The window is set in a blue-tinted background. The woman is shown from the waist up, wearing a white robe with a blue sash and a crown. She is holding a child in her arms. The window is surrounded by intricate patterns and colors, including red, blue, and gold. The overall scene is set against a light blue background.

True Faith Rejects...

- The plans of the “world”

Hebrews 11:24 By faith Moses, when he had grown up, refused to be known as the son of Pharaoh's daughter.

True Faith Rejects...

- The pleasures of the “world”

Hebrews 11:25 He chose to be mistreated along with the people of God rather than to enjoy the pleasures of sin for a short time.

True Faith Rejects...

- The perks of the “world”

Hebrews 11:26 He regarded disgrace for the sake of Christ as of greater value than the treasures of Egypt, because he was looking ahead to his reward.

James 4:4

- You adulterous people, don't you know that friendship with the world is hatred toward God?
Anyone who chooses to be a friend of the world becomes an enemy of God.

True Faith Rejects...

- The pressures of the “world”

Hebrews 11:27 By faith he left Egypt, not fearing the king's anger; he persevered because he saw him who is invisible.

True Faith Accepts...

- God has a plan

Hebrews 11:23 By faith Moses' parents hid him for three months after he was born, because they saw he was no ordinary child, and they were not afraid of the king's edict.

True Faith Accepts...

- God always provides

Hebrews 11:28 By faith he kept the Passover and the sprinkling of blood, so that the destroyer of the firstborn would not touch the firstborn of Israel.

True Faith Accepts...

- God always keeps His promises

Hebrews 11:29 By faith the people passed through the Red Sea as on dry land; but when the Egyptians tried to do so, they were drowned.
